What past exhibitors have to say about the COMSOL Conference:

“It was the first time we exhibited and gave a workshop at the COMSOL Conference: not only did it give us the unique opportunity to have meaningful interactions, which led to several opportunities and orders, but it also strengthened our market presence and awareness, as well as the relationship with a leading software company like COMSOL.”

– Alan Boffi, HP Switzerland

“The COMSOL Multiphysics® user conferences have been, for over more than a decade, our preferred way to keep in touch with the COMSOL community and to discuss and interact with other users, potential new clients, as well as all the COMSOL developers present. It is a unique occasion to get in touch with those writing the code, get advice, learn about the latest updates, and get essential information about the new trends to come.”

– Ivar Kjelberg, CSEM SA

“Exhibiting at the COMSOL Conference puts us in direct contact with COMSOL users. It’s a great opportunity for us to meet with new potential customers of our multiphysics computational analysis and simulation services.”

– Kyle Koppenhoefer, AltaSim Technologies
